WILL BANQUET MARCH 5

Retail Merchants' Bureau of Chamber of Commerce Plans Feast—Officers and Directors Chosen—Other Matters Considered

A banquet will be given Wednesday evening March 5 by the Retail Merchants' bureau of the Chamber of Commerce to which many of the officers of the state Retail Merchants'. Association are expected to attend. The date for the affair was decided upon last night at the regular monthly meeting of that bureau held in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce.

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the affair is composed of C. B. Swan William F. Smith, Henry W. Wildt, R. E. Knight.

The annual election of officers for the Retail Merchants' Association, Inc. resulted as follows

R. E. Knight, president, C. B. Swan, vice president; . T. Preston, secretary and treasurer.

Two directors to the Chamber of Commerce re-elected follow: R. E. Knight and Leopold Ruben.

R. Stuart Royer, business manager of the Chamber of Commerce submitted his plan for the illumination of six blocks on King street, as which plan was published in the Gazette yesterday.

E. C. Sampson, local agent for the American Railway Express Company, appeared before the meeting and stated that his company has just launched a "Better Service" campaign. He gave a description of the difficulties with which his company had to contend by reason of packages being illegibly marked or with no marks at all, which caused packages to go astray. He made a plea for co-operation in the proper packing of all packages.

Lieut Price, of Camp Humphreys, manager of the camp publication known as "The Castle" was introduced. He emphasized the fact that Humphreys is a permanent camp and urged the co-operation of our merchants in keeping in touch with the men at this camp. Since the signing of the armistice he said the merchants apparently had lost interest resulting in many of the men from that camp going to Washington to make purchases.

He added that it was more convenient for the men to make their purchases here, and that the men appreciated the kindness and hospitality shown them by the citizens of this place.

Inasmuch as the personnel of the camp is being continually changed he asked that the merchants not lose interest in their efforts to keep in touch with the men.

The committee in charge of the plans for the proposed ferry line between Alexandria and the Maryland side of the river reported progress.

The removal of ashes, garbage, improvement in stores, location of new business firms and a host of other matters were discussed during the evening before the meeting adjourned.

RATHER DIE THAN SUFFER

Wilmington Del., Feb. 13.—Discharging a shot-gun which she held against her abdomen, Mrs. Ada M. Sparks, 35 years old, wife of a well-known farmer of Brandywine Hundred tore her body almost to pieces. Mrs. Sparks had been ill for some time and was recovering from a recent surgical operation. Mrs. Harvey Beecher, who went to the woman's room at the report of the shooting, asked Mrs. Sparks if she had shot herself. She smiled, answered in the affirmative and dropped to the floor dead.

While dressing to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law yesterday morning, Weldin B. Smith, 35 years old, of No. 817 West Fourth street, became despondent and committed suicide by sending a bullet through his head. Smith who was a barber by trade, has been ill for some time, being unable to work.

GERMANY AND FRANCE

Huns Gorged With Stolen Riches While Their Victims Are Struggling to Regain Their Feet

The Youth's Companion in a recent issue has this to say about the people who are so nice and whose streets are so clean, and who were so very kind to our American soldiers—"Germany is gorged with stolen riches, Some German factories are already busy, and their looms and engines are even now repairing the havoc of defeat. France on the other hand, must repair mine shafts, rebuild houses and cities, and level fields anew. The loss that France suffered when Germany ravaged the chief industrial regions was so great and the cost of undoing the damage will be so heavy that only complete restitution by Germany in the form of large annuities paid for many years to come, and used by France to pay back the French national loans, will save the French people from taxes that would soon prove fatal, so great is the contrast between the two countries at present; and so sadly is France impoverished that, unless the Allies force Germany to make complete reparation, our apparent victory will be succeeded by an economic defeat for France that in the course of time will gravely threaten the safety of the world."

DOG'S BARKING SAVES FIVE

Awakens Master, Who Leads Wife and Children From Fire.

Fayette City, Pa., Feb. 13.—The barking of a dog probably saved Rudolph Bamblottus his wife and three children from death early yesterday, when the general store of the Federal Supply Company was destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of $75,000. The dog lost its life.

Awakened by the dog's bark. Bamblottus led his family down stairs in the rear of the building. Remembering that the dog which had saved his life was in the storeroom, he made several attempts to rescue the animal, but the dense smoke prevented him.

STILL ON STRIKE

Thirty thousand shipyard workers were still on strike in Seattle yesterday. Although the general strike ended Tuesday at noon, union tailors are still out of employment. The Metal Council met and concurred in the strike conference committee's decision to continue the shipyard strike, in spite of the ending of the general walkout. Seattle's water front is being run on the open shop plan in certain sections, according to labor men.

LOVED TOO MUCH

"Because I loved her," was the reason assigned by Stephen Carrigan, 35, for the shooting of Mrs. Florence Hicks, 21, in Newark, N. J., yesterday Carrigan, after firing two bullets into the woman's body turned the revolver on himself in an attempt at suicide. Mrs. Hicks died on the way to the City Hospital. Carrigan, however, inflicted only a scalp wound on himself and was not dangerously hurt. He now is being held in custody.

George E. Price and J. J. Cook will have in the market tomorrow Jersey trout, lake trout, mackerel, fresh haddock, tile, fresh cod, fresh steaks and halibut. 38-1t.

TO PAY VIRGINIA DEBT

West Virginia Commission Makes Recommendation in its Report to Legislature. Randolph's Concession believed to be Best Plan.

Charleston, W. Va., Feb. 13.—Recommending the payment of the Virginia debt and suggesting a basis upon which this may be done, the report of the Virginia Debt Commission of West Virginia has been submitted to the Legislature through Governor John J. Cornwell. It was pointed out in the report that the concession offered by Randolph Harrison, who appeared before the Legislature a few days ago, to the end that the debt could be paid in bonds which would run for a number of years, was probably the best that could be obtained Briefly stated, the report says that the proposition is this:

"First That you satisfy the judgment with bonds delivered to the State of Virginia at par, less the payment of $1,062,867.16 in cash and one-half the costs of the suit as declared by the court.

"Second—That the said bonds cover a period of 20 years and bear 3 1-2 per cent. interest.

"Third—That this State retain in her treasury, or in escrow bonds to the amount of the undeposited certificates, to be turned over only when or if such outstanding and undeposited certificates are presented."

THREATS CAUSED PROHIBITION

"Prohibition is not the real sentiment of Congress. If Congress had voted the way it drinks there would be no prohibition," said Representative Charles P. Coady, of Baltimore, at Atlantic City yesterday. The trouble in Congress," he added, "is that many members have yielded to the threats of narrow gauged people who are intent on making other people do as they want them to. Many Congressmen who voted for prohibition like their liquor, but they lack the hardihood to stand up against abuse. Prohibition is contrary to the best interest of the people at large, and is calculated to do great mischief."

STATEMENT FROM EBERT

"As President of the German Republic I shall endeavor to carry out life time principles of pacifism and a league of nations. I shall not belong to any party." Dr. Friedrich Ebert made this statement yesterday when asked what policy he would pursue in his new office.

By that time, it is stated, there will be no toll gates on any trunk line highway extending from Pennsylvania to Roanoke.

RESTORE LAWS OF MOSES

Impressive Ceremonies at Jaffa Attended Event of Great Interest to Hebrew

Jerusalem, Feb. 13.—Restoration of the Parchment Scrolls of the Law to the various synagogues in Tel Aviv and Jaffa was one of the interesting ceremonies which followed the British occupation.

These scrolls of the law of Moses, which are all written by hand and are preserved in magnificently ornamented cases, some of them in solid silver, are the most sacred and holy possessions of every Jewish community. So when Diemal Pasha in his hostility to the Zionists, carried out the tyrannical evacuation of he bulk of the Jewish population of Jaffa in April, 1917, the Jews carried with them these sacred Torah into exile, lest they should fall into the hands of the Turks.

These sacred scrolls had been carefully guarded by the Jews at Petach Tikvah (Mulebbis) and were brought back in solemn procession to Jaffa, A triumphal arch was erected at the northern confines of Tel Avis, every house was decorated with flowers and bunting and the whole of the Jewish population turned out en fete to meet the return of their sacred possessions. Jews came not merely from Jaffa but also from Richno-le Zion and the other neighboring colonies.

The young men and the girls of the Maccabee Athletic Association, dressed in white clothes, with blue sashes and ties, maintained order and kept a pathway clear for the procession through the crowds. The procession was headed by the Australian Military Band and the ceremony at the triumphal arch was attended by officers representing the military governor and by Dr. Weizmann and the members and officers of the Zionist Commission.

ENJOYABLE DANCE GIVEN AT W. C. C. S. CLUB LAST NIGHT

The young ladies constituting the War Camp Community Service dancing division under the chaperonage of Miss Lida McLaughlin and Mrs. Percy Evans gave a very successful dance last night in the hall for the men still in camp. The novelty of the affair consisted in masks and fancy costumes for the ladies and the hall presented a beautiful appearance with the variegated colors of the gay fancy dresses, representing every character from Harlequin to the Spanish Dancer tambourine and all. A committee of the girls had previously decorated the hall and made its walls beautiful with the red streamers, hearts and valentines usual to the 14th of February. Excellent music was furnished by the orchestra from Fort Myer. Besides nearly a hundred girls, there were two hundred or more men in uniform, officers, soldiers, sailors and marines, coming from Camp Humphreys, Fort Myer, Fort Hunt, Washington and Quantico. At 10.30 intermission was declared and the party repaired to the club rooms on the lower floor to partake of light refreshments, after which dancing was resumed and the throwing of serpentine rolls of paper added another enjoyable feature to the occasion. This was really the one big event in War Camp Community Service activities since those during Christmas holidays, but arrangements are in the forming to have something doing most of the time for our enlisted men. Chaperones were Mrs. Lida French, Mrs. Carroll Pierce and Mrs. Percy Evans.

HARMONY IS RESTORED GRANDLODGEOF MASONS

President Wilson Expects to Leave Paris Friday Homeward Bound. His Departure Will be More Pleasant Than Anticipated.

Paris, Feb. 13.—The first definite accord was reached today at the Supreme War Council meeting through an understanding on all points for renewal of the armistice.

The agreement indicates that harmony has been restored between the French and Americans and augurs well for future harmony between these two nations whose interests have clashed so many times in the last few weeks.

It indicates further that President Wilson's departure from France will be much more pleasant than the American a few days back thought it might be.

The terse communique gives no details, but these will be forthcoming in a few days.

After hearing Marshal Foch the Supreme War Council agreed to a course which will render Germany incapable of starting hostilities again and will impress upon Germany that she is beaten and that the allies do not intend to impose a compromise peace, according to an unofficial note.

L'Intransigeant declared the allies will demand complete fulfillment of the clauses of the armistice. Political aggressions against Poland will be forbidden and it will be declared all fighting must cease.

Marshal Foch departed for Treves last night, bearing the new conditions for continuation of the armistice. The German commission, headed by Mathias Erzberger, already is here.

The President is now trying to get away from Paris Friday night because he does not like to begin traveling Sunday.

DEATHS FROM FLU"

The figures, compiled by the Public Health Service, disclosed that in forty-six cities of this country alone there were 125,562 deaths from Spanish "flu" from Septmber to January. These figures do not take into consideration any of the army camps, or rural sections of the country, nor any of the smaller towns or cities. It is estimated that a complete census of the flu's ravages in the United States would disclose between 250,000 and 300,000 deaths in the September January period.

KILLED PLAYING WILD WEST

School Boy Shot by Chum With "Didn't Know it was Loaded" Gun

Pittsburgh, Feb. 13.—While staging an amateur "Wild West" show in a shed near their homes in Stowe township yesterday evening, Edward McClelland, aged 14, accidentally shot and killed his school chum, David Wilbur, 13 years old. Members of the McClelland family, attracted by the shooting rushed into the shed and found Wilbur unconscious. The bullet had entered his left side near the heart and the boy died within a few minutes.

The shooting was witnessed by a dozen youngsters, who had paid a cent apiece to see the show. Young McClelland told the police that he "didn't know the gun was loaded." The boys had been playmates for years.

SUN 'PHONE LED WOMAN

Body Found After Mystic Had Been Dismissed by Authorities as of Unsound Mind.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Feb. 13.—"Mystic thought" may help solve the mystery surrounding the death of A. A. Gretchel, whose decomposed body was found in an unused room of a saloon here, Monday.

A woman who gave her name as Maria Evans and claimed Scranton as her home, appeared at the rooms of the United Charities and claimed that Mrs. Anna Bertles, matron of the charities, had sent her a message by sun phone, which is alleged to be mental telepathy, from Philadelphia telling her that a man for whom she was looking was lying dead in the room of a saloon. She mentioned the saloon as "Union Hall" and the saloon where Gretchel's body was found was at one time known by that name. The offidials at the Charities dismissed the woman as being of unsound mind and paid no more attention to what they thought were ramblings of a disordered mind.

When Gretchel's body was found, just as the woman said, detectives seized upon it as a clue to the mystery surrounding the death. They have learned that Gretchl was on friendly relations with a Scranton woman and an effort is now being made to find the mysterious Maria Evans to see just what she knows about the man's death. It is not yet determined whether Gretchel was murdered or committed suicide.

GRAND THEATRE

The Grand Theatre offers that winsom little screen star, Pauline Starke, in "Irish Eyes," tomorrow.

In "Irish Eyes," Miss Starke has a role that offers her every opportunity to display her talent and her personality that has been found so entertaining in its whimsical appeal.

Her role is that of a lass of old Ireland, a little girl whose comprehension has been dwarfed by a life of ill treatmnt and drudgery. Her only happiness is her joy in the caress of the waves of the Irish sea as they play along the shore.

Through a life that has taught her to dread every experience it is only natural that she should fear even happiness when it is presented to her by romance, in strange adventures. But someone grows to love Pegeen and to understand her and gradually her timidity is overcome. It is then that she recognizes the shining vistas of true happiness.

MUST OBEY DOG LAWS

The chief of police of this city has delivered the following order to the force:

"Members of the force must pay strict attention to all dogs running at large in this city. The names and addresses of all owners of dogs must be procured, and those allowing canines to run at large cited to appear in court to show cause why they should not be fined. We have had several cases reported recently of dogs biting persons passing along streets."

The City Council has been adopting ordinances concerning dogs during the past half a century, which for a time are partly obeyed, but within a few months the laws are more honored in their breach than observance.

A young woman appeared in the Police Court yesterday morning where she exhibited her torn dress and an ugly wound on her limb, the result of having been attacked by a dog while walking on south Pitt street. An officer was directed to kill the cur.

Several weeks ago a young man was bitten by a dog on south Fairfax street. Sentence of death was also passed upon this animal. Other cases have at times been reported.

We have often called attention to the fact that dogs cannot be allowed to appear on the streets without being muzzled or leashed. But a muzzled dog would be a curiosolty on the streets at present.

Several persons have been attacked by dogs in neighboring cities recently. In one instance a boy subsequently died of rabies.

The policemen will carry out the above order to the letter, and persons who prefer to harbor dogs should take due notice and act acordingly.

LINCOLN'S CENTENARY

Abraham Lincoln was born one hundred years ago yesterday, and papers in every section of the land contained eulogies on the war President.

Times change and men change with them" was an ancient saying, the truth of which is made apparent in the twentieth century. When the country in 1860 realized that Lincoln had been elected President of the United States there was rejoicing in most places in the north, while south of Mason and Dixon's line there was evident exasperation. His enemies termed him the railsplitter with a vein of the clown. It would have been hazardous for any man in our section of country to have expressed faith in him at that time. The circulation of the New York Tribune, Lincoln's mouthpiece, and Helper's book "The Impending Crisis" was forbidden in Dixie.

Nearly three score years later papers in all sections are vieing in encomiums upon the man who stood at the helm of the ship of state at a time when it required nerve and determination.

We will not add any commendations to the many which are being expressed in every direction. While not of his political school, we have ever believed Abraham Lincoln meant well.

An exchange asks "What was Lincoln and what did he represent personally and publicly? He was one of the most common and one of the most uncommon men in American history. The uncommonest common American that ever hit the "Long, Long Trail" of immortality. His commonness made him brother to the humblest. His uncommonness made him peer of the greatest. But he didn't love the common man because the latter was common, but because he was a man and might become uncommon. He was uncommon in that Nature performed one of her finest miracles in him of taking common clay nad making it into a piece of intellectual alabaster. In him she laughed at claims of long descent. She said, "Let there be a man, and there was a Man."

Another contemporary says 'no one was ever embarrassed by the presence of Lincoln. While towering above other men in his mental and moral qualities, he was yet a man of the people, the product of democracy—every man felt kinship in Lincoln. Born in poverty, reared under adverse conditions, self educated, raised by Divine Providence to a great position to meet a great emergency, he ennobled human nautre because he revealed the qualities which every man, humble or exalted, may possess. Every man has a little higher sense of his own moral worth because he is of the same clay as Abraham Lincoln, the most perfect product of democracy."

SWANSON ON THE ALERT

Senator Swanson, always alert to push the construction of first-class public roads is to be commended for obtaining an amendment to the bill making appropriations for the post-office department which embraces a substantial part of the plan which he originally proposed for Federal road improvement.

The amendment makes fifty million dollars immediately available for this purpose, and seventy-five million dollars for each of the two succeeding fiscal years, to be expended in accordance with existing Federal-aid laws; and, besides, authorizes the secretary of war to turn over to the states available road building material not required by the government.

The net result will be, if the amendment is adopted by the house, that Virginia will have available for roads before July, 1920, nearly five and one-half million dollars, besides a vast amount of material. It will be incumbent upon Virginia to take up its share of this enormous sum by adequate and prompt outlays of money so that the comprehensive plan of highway building which Mr. Swanson has long fostered, both governor and as senator, may become a splendid reality. (Richmond Virginian.)

(Communicated.)

Mr. Editor:

I would like to ask a question. Every night or two a bunch of boys make it their business to come to the Grand Theatre and see how much they can annoy the management and the patrons. It seems this happens in spells. Last night it was necessary to have one of them arrested. Is there no way to stop this? When a citizen has invested his money in a theatre, should he not be protected. He has a special policeman, but, as you know, they are not afraid of him. This boy was released soon after arrest. Wouldn't it be well to make an example of one or two and stop the nuisance, whether it comes from low breeding or is a plot to injure the house. I know myself that the proprietors have tried every means possible to keep order.

George H. Hayden.

ROBBED A POSTOFFICE

W. R. Smith, 18 years old, has been arrested at Danville on a charge of breaking into the postoffice at South Boston and stealing $104. The police claim that the boy has made a confession and that $70 was found in his pockets when arrested. He is the son of a former Danville policeman.

GERMANY IS THREATENED

Allies Warn Huns to Hasten the Delivery of Locomotives and Machinery.

Copenhagen, Feb. 13.—Great Britain and France have sent notes to Mathias Erzberger, president of the German armistice commission, the Weimar correspondent of the Berlingske Tidende says he learns from a reliable source, dealing with the failure of Germany to deliver locomotives and agricultural machinery as agreed. He says the tone of the notes virtually constitutes a threat to Germany.

The correspondent adds that it is reported that a similar note is expected from the United States.

SLAIN BY BOLSHEVIKI

Churchman Beaten and Made to Carry Heavy Burdens Before He Is Killed.

Vladivostok, Feb. 13.—Bishop Hermogen, of Tobolsk, was tortured and murdered by Bolsheviki according to a private letter received here. Since the early days of Bolshevikiam the bishop had fearlessly denounced their work, and for this was forbidden to preach.

The aged churchman defied the Bolsheviki, and in his preachings displayed greater energy than ever in condemning the Soviet authorities. The Bolsheviki arrested him and took him to Ekaterinburg, Whereupon the population of Tobolsk province who greatly revered their old bishop, sent a delegation to demand his liberation.

The Czecho-Slovaks at that time began to occupy Western Siberia and the Bolsheviki feared to provcke the peasants of Tobolsk. They released the bishop and started him back to Tobolsk under escort of Red Guard troops. A steamer was provided and the delegation headed by the bishop, proceeded triumphantly as far as Pakrovsk village, Here they met a steamer carrying the Czecho-Slovaks or white guards. Rather than have the bishop liberated by them, the Red Guard decided to kill him. The old man was beaten and forced to carry heavy burdens of ammunition during the flight of the convoy. When he could go no further, says the informant, his torturers tied a rock to his feet and threw him into the river.

The body was recovered later by his people and given burial in Tobolsk.

Why Swift & Company Handle Poultry, Eggs, Butter and Cheese

Swift & Company went into the produce business because they saw a crying need for the kind of service they were equipped to perform.

The produce business was in chaos. Collecting, transportation, preparation and distribution was hit-or-miss, with delay, deterioration and loss on every hand.

The farmer was at the mercy of an uncertain, localized market. He had no way of reaching through to the people who needed what he was raising for them. There was no premium upon improving his stocks, for grading was lax or lacking.

The consumer had to accept produce that, as a rule, had no known responsible name behind it. He had no way of knowing how long the eggs or the butter he was buying had been lying around in miscellaneous lots in the back room of a country store. Much of the poultry was not properly refrigerated before shipment or properly protected by refrigeration in transit.

Swift & Company's initiative brought system to this chaos. Their organization, equipment, and experience in handling perishable food products were already adjusted to the task. Their refrigerator cars, branch houses, central points, far-reaching connections, trained sales force, supplied just what was demanded.

Now the farmer has a daily cash market in touch with the nation's needs with better prices. Standardization makes better produce more profitable. More consumers are served with better, fresher, finer foodstuffs.

Nothing suffers from this save inefficiency, which has no claim upon public support.

HUNS WILL LOSE COLONIES

Complete Arrangements Made Regarding Western Boundary Line of Germany.

London, Feb. 13.—Premier Lloyd George announced in the House of Commons late yesterday that it has been unanimously decided that her colonies will not be restored to Germany.

Complete arrangements, he said, had been reached among the powers on the demands regarding the Western boundary of Germany.

Replying to a question from Col. Guiness, the Premier declared the government favored not only reparation of war damages, but stood by election pledge to make Germany pay to the full extent of her resources.

Reparation, Mr. Lloyd George said, must include indemnity.

"Germany has forfeited her claim to the colonies by her treatment of the natives," the premier said regarding the colonial subject.

"If Britain insisted upon having the German colonies," continued the premier, "I am afraid we would arouse considerable suspicion. Our position will not be weaker but stronger if the German colonies are placed under a mandatory of the combined wisdom of all nations fighting the battle of liberty."

"The British government, the prime minister declared, has no idea of recognizing the Bolsheviki so long as they pursue their present methods. He added:

"The allies must do their best to restore that distracted country."

"Conscription must go at the earliest possible moment, the former Kaiser must be punished and Germany must be made to pay."

These are the main planks in the platform of the Free Liberals as proclaimed yesterday in a speech by Sir Donald MacLean, leader of the new party.

ACCUSED OF ROBBING BANK

Former Cashier of Lansford Institution Held.

Mauch Chunk, Pa., Feb. 13.—On complaint of Carl Siek, a United States bank examiner, Fred Kline, former cashier of the First National Bank of Lansford, was arrested and placed in the Carbon county jail this week for a hearing before United States Commissioner Daniel W. Sitler, of Mauch Chunk.

The warrant sets forth that Mr. Kline made false entries in the books of the bank and forged the names of William Williams to a note for $4000 and embezzled a cash item of $5000 from the bank.

His security bond is $25,000, which it is believed, will cover all his defalcations. Special auditors appointed by the bank have completed their report. The bank examiner is also making a special audit.
